

Wake Up

Sebastien

Forgive me mother for the waste of my life
Forgive me father for losing my pride
Forgive me brother for my arms are in chains
Forgive me sister for a scar that remains

Dark days came from a distant shore
New age-blindness led us straight to war

We are legion of Christ with legacy of Rome
We won't follow bad leaders to save the place we call home
We're protecting our realm and locking the gates of Hell
Now pray for tomorrow fight for Europe
Wake Up!

Forgive me people the sins I confess
Gimme a shield from the strength of your prayers
Remember warriors from a Beowulf saga
My time is coming to defend what I've got

Bleedin' Love won't blame thee
So, stand up, stand up against our Enemy...

We are legion of Christ with legacy of Rome
We won't follow bad leaders to save the place we call home
We're protecting our realm and locking the gates of Hell
Now pray for tomorrow fight for Europe
Wake Up!
