

My World

Secret Affair

I can feel that taste for life slipping away,
And striking the lost chord I find nothing new to say
Someone told me all dressed with nowhere to go,
I should have that sinking feeling, my head hung low,

But this is my world today
My world your living in every day
And this is my world today
And I couldn't have it any other way
In my world

Well the mind has its reasons for talking aloud
But when people turn and stare, I feel so proud
The things they say won't come as any surprise
In an instant they become distant cries

But this is my world today
My world your living in every day
And this is my world today
And I couldn't have it any other way
In my world, my world, my world, my world today
Forever and ever,
Forever and ever,

But this is my world today
My world your living in every day
And you are my world today
And I couldn't have it any other way
In my world, your world, my world, your world today
In my world, In my world, In my world.

In my world
