

Feed my fire

Secret Sphere

Strange to meet you here
In the middle of nowhere
Two lives so far, so close
Two eyes so deeply lost

You appeared in my life with thousand thoughts and dreams
Through it's so hard I'll never give up, I'm never givin' in Each time I think of you I'd save you
But I know well

We don't need a hero
We don't need a saviour
Just believe in a flame that never dies
Feed my fire

Strange to live now
Alone with thoughts and dreams
Out of my life
You are just out of reach
Facing the fears
I turn out the light but it is hard to turn a heart out
I'm so lost tonight

We don't need a hero
We don't need a saviour
Just believe in a flame that never dies
Feed my fire

Closer in time
Closer in life
Dreamin' of you
...souls in the night
