

Labyrinth Of Glass

Secret Sphere

My eyes can see so close, the invisible walls which force you
in conformed paths
guiding your mind
under a bright sky
of painted glass

Without a hole
to the warm rays of sun Ohh!
Find the way, to escape from the dark
no fear, of the pen sight
For mankind now
I swear, captivity
no more shall last

Will never fall my hope no time I'll waste Noway, has to fall my hope
no time I'll waste

My neverending need to run out shows the way to break the glass and find yourself lonely
in a fake mankind

Without a hole
to the warm rays of sun
Ohh!
Find the way, to escape from the dark
no fear, of the pen sight
For mankind now
I swear, captivity
no more shall last

shows the way to break the glass
and find yourself lonely
in a fake mankind

shows the way to break the glass
and find yourself lonely
in a fake mankind

to run out...

to break out...

fake mankind...
