

Love

Secret Sphere

Love is a scent of beauty
No one can compare
Like a

A state of mind made of answers
With no questions for surround
Magic, science and religion
... Holy from the sky

Life, shapes and colors
Are painting love
An endless ride into the sun
Stars seem fading
I know for sure
I can recall those paintings now

Washed away memories
Just like lies in the sand
Every action generates echoes
It's the path of life and
Moving pictures multiply
A colors gathering shape
Life will go shape like a spiral
Re the cold of love

Life, shapes and colors
Are painting love
An endless ride into the sun
Stars seem fading
I know for sure
I can recall those paintings now

After we voice our
We will talk
That's where we belong
The only one believer
Until you find someone else
That loves to love

Life, shapes and colors
Are painting love
An endless ride into the sun
That's where our hearts belong
Stars seem fading
I know for sure
I can recall those paintings now

Life, shapes and colors
Are painting love
An endless ride to the sun
I know for sure
I can recall those paintings now
