

Under The Flag Of Mary Read

Secret Sphere

I was born to face the wild winds, my face is angelic,
my heart's made of stone, on wings of freedom through oceans I'll fly 'till I'll die

The Sphere: So they love
as love in twain
two natures in one,
two is the number
in this love was slain

Look at the horizon
and feel the wind,
freedom's the fire
that burns in my soul,
hear the sea, touch my dream, it is what I would die for

I raise my head,
I close your eyes into the wind, under Recham's flag, I cross my dreams with my secret love I fight, I kill like a warrior, until the end, before my farewell

two natures in one,

and feel the wind,
that burns in my soul,
hear the sea, touch my dream,
it is what I would die for

Until the end before my farewell,
under the flag of Mary Read,
inside a man, outside woman

two natures in one,

Look at the horizon far, feel the wind of nevermore, Freedom is the fire in my soul, Freedom is what burns in the dark, my dream it is what I will die for
