

ghosts and nightshades
the stage is empty now starstruck devils fill the air a shadow hiding in the lair this time gone soon

collapse
solemn bleeds the night
collapse now

sleep pariah
drifting in the aisles the sound of thunder filled the sky Now silence keeps echoing the room come darkness soon

the glowing man forever ceases to shine

arriving one last time

the burning man descending one last time

silence now
