Secrets of the Moon

one world starts spinning the other world has stopped there's no beginning
no adopting of the heart

we're not gonna win it
and I hold the hopeless man gripping the soul
because

heart is worn out
heart is soaked
I'm gonna lay it down where it's coming from reach out
far cry
reach the sky
now float away into the night

not gonna spin it and I feel the rain keeps falling through my head

inverted firmament
and I see the shed blood drying on my wings

the golden spiral
the mirror and the spoon
dead end epistle
a letter to the moon

void place of the spirit dopamine in boleskine
Holy guardian angel

run for your life
run this time
Don't wanna lay you down in my arms heart is covered in mercury sand I'm gonna lay it down when the last beat ends

run for your life
One last time
I'm gonna lay you down when the last beat ends

run
