

Never Get Used To

Seinabo Sey

I cry as I remember you
And then I cry when I forget about you
I smile 'cause I remember you
And then I smile again to pull myself through

Calling for you is your daughter
I look for you 'round every corner
I need to hear your voice, it's harder than ever before

'Cause see, I'll never get used to not having you around me
And I will never get used to not having you around me

Calling for you is your daughter
I look for you 'round every corner
I need to hear your voice, it's harder than ever before

I sing because you told me to
And then I stop because I sound just like you
I speak the way you taught me to
And then i scream because I can't speak to you

Calling for you is your daughter
I look for you 'round every corner
I need to hear your voice, it's harder than ever before

'Cause see, I'll never get used to not having you around me
And I will never get used to not having you around me

I make the same mistakes you did
Just to get closer to you, just to get closer to you
I make the same mistakes you did
Just to get closer to you, just to get closer to you
See, I make the same mistakes you did
Just to get closer to you, just to get closer to you
Now I make the same mistakes you did
'Cause I need to be closer to you, I wanna be closer to you

'Cause see, I'll never get used to not having you around me
Daddy, I'll never get used to not having you around me

Calling for you is your daughter
I look for you 'round every corner
I need to hear your voice, it's harder than ever before
