

Love Will Remember

Selena Gomez

Now's all we got and time can't be bought.
I know it inside my heart forever will forever be ours.
Even if we try to forget, love will remember.

You said you love me, I said I loved you back
What happened to that, what happened to that
All your promises, and all them plans we had,
What happened to that, what happened to that
Boom gone, yeah we move on, even if we try to forget,

Love will remember you, love will remember me
I know it inside of my heart,
Forever will forever be ours, even if we try to forget,
Love will remember, love will remember
Love will remember, love will remember, love will remember

The trips we dreamed of taking the tacks left on the map,
What happened to that, what happened to that
When all you had was nothing, and all we did was laugh
What happened to that, what happened, what happened to that
Boom gone, yeah we move on, even if we try to forget

Love will remember you, love will remember me
I know it inside of my heart,
Forever will forever be ours, even if we try to forget,
Love will remember, love will remember

Break down the walls let heaven in, somewhere and forever we'll dance again,
We used to be inseparable, I used to think that I was irreplace able
We lit the whole world up, before we blew it up,
I still don't know just how we screwed it up
Forever, forever, forever

Love will remember you, love will remember me
I know it inside of my heart,
Forever will forever be ours, even if we try to forget,
Love will remember, love will remember
Love will remember, love will remember, love will remember
Love will remember, love will remember, love will remember, lov
e'll remember
