

Life Could Be Swell

Self

What's the use in singing songs
We can all chime in off key
We can dance until we all fall down Whats the use of a pretty face One thats painted and ignores Every earthling that violates her space (space)

Why not go out and wrestle the tide?
Why not question the very truth by which we abide?
Seems it all comes to pass so quickly
Why take shit from those who dont care?
The only true reason their really there and have a job cause their label's the mob

Now me I'm not one to dwell on the ups and downs or in my own hell
I just sit back and think about how life can be swell

Sometimes it never as fun as some may make it seem I slip my fingers in between the shoulders of all the people sometimes its never as easy as the child inside thought it would be professional community run by thieves

Now me I'm not one to dwell
on the ups and downs or in my own hell
I just sit back and think
about how life can be swell

Me I'm not one to dwell on the good, the bad, or in my own hell I just back and think About how life can be swell

Life could be swell

I wanna sing R&B
Make a million dollar video for BET
Do a remix version for MTV Get shot, come back to life in 5 movies
