

Loneliness

Semargl

Thousands of voices in my head,
They force me to pretend:
Be happy, when it hurts!
Be patient, when it burns!
The nest of snakes inside my head,
The venom of insane,
I'm patient, when it bites.
I'm happy, when I'm blind.

With madness... to dwell in loneliness.
With madness... I'm one by one.

All my senses turn to fear,
Why don't I disappear?
My demons haunt me.
My demons hate me.
Ugly visions burn my eyes,
I cannot defy....
Leave me alone!!
Leave me alone!!

With madness... to dwell in loneliness.
With madness... I'm one by one.
