

Farewell

Sentenced

I've dragged myself through the blood and mud and with burning eyes pushed the love away...
No, I'm not the kind of man who'd play for keeps...
-The enchantment lies in the moment of goodbyes
For eternity...
-My sun has set down
I dream to flee...
As I suffer "the black" bleed into me
I regret every single day I ever lived in my life
I gave all I had in me... So it's time to say Goodbye
The breath of wind beneath my beating wings is slowly dying down...
-Yet raging it's final blow!
As it crumbles down... my castle in the air
The relieving words of farewell end my earthly Hell
For eternity...
-My sun has set down
It has ceased to be...
The lightning that once burned in me
I regret every single day I ever lived in my life
I gave all I had in me... So it's time to say Goodbye
