

I feel your absence from my memory
Promises made, but all that's left is despair (Despair)
Conviction, tell me what's mine to blame
Conviction, tell me what's mine to bear
Oh, the fire
Anguish is burning deep
Inside, you liar (Liar)
No, it's killing me
Will I live to see your face again?
The voice that calls me home?
Will I find the strength
To follow her into the unknown?
The shadows that beckon at my feet
Remind me of shame and guilt and hate
Conviction, tell me what's mine to blame
(What's mine to bear)
Conviction, tell me what's mine to bear
Oh, the fire

Anguish is burning deep
Inside, you liar (Liar)
No, it's killing me
I never thought all this time
I would stare into the void without you
Another day goes by
Never knowing if I'll make it out alive
What can I do to find my way back to you?
I'll never know
I'll never know
I'll never know
I'll never know
I'll never know
I'll never know
Oh, the fire
Anguish is burning deep
Inside, you liar (Liar)
No, it's killing me
I never thought all this time
I would stare into the void without you
Another day goes by
Never knowing if I'll make it out alive
What can I do to find my way back to you?
I'll never know (Never know)
I'll never know
