

Distance Disturbs Me

Set It Off

I wish I never saw your face
Then I wouldn't need a place to frame you in my mind
Hanging on the wall
My memories and all
But you're not tangible

Stuck on sentimental
The history we never had Almost accidental
The way you live inside my head
And I would kill to be a mile away
To feel the breath you'll take
But fate won't let me

Distance disturbs me
I wish we never met
I wish I could forget who you are
Distance disturbs me
Cause we just can't connect
I found my one regret and it was you
Distance disturbs me

Separated by a scream
It's just a bitter sweet success with a dash of failure
I'm hanging by a thread
Intentions cut to shred
I'm starting to lose my grip
So someone please distract me
I need a new obsession
Am I just going crazy?
I'll never learn my lesson cause
I would kill to be a mile away
To feel the breath you'll take
but fate won't let me

Distance disturbs me
I wish we never met
I wish I could forget who you are
Distance disturbs me
Cause we just can't connect
I found my one regret and it was you
Distance disturbs me

Throw it all away
For just one rainy day
Throw it all away
For just one rainy day with you
With you

I would kill to be a mile away
Or the breath you'll take but fate won't let me

Distance disturbs me
I wish we never met
I wish I could forget who you are
Distance disturbs me
Cause we just can't connect

I found my one regret and it was you
I found my one regret and it was you
I found my one regret and it was you
