

Go to Bed Angry

Set It Off

Feel the heat
Tension turned to 99 degrees
Turn your back and mumble petty things
Passive aggressive comments make me crazy, So crazy

So don't you walk away from me
Let's settle this
Rather hear you scream
Than whisper shit
There's no in-between
Cause if we sleep in our feelings
We'll never start healing

Let's not go to bed angry
Taking back everything I said
Baby let's not do this
Baby I don't wanna go to bed angry

Out of sync
Awkward silence like we skipped a beat
Words that burn through the whiskey neat
Don't tell me that it's fine that shit drives me Crazy, so crazy

So don't you walk away from me
I don't wanna chase you
Rather hear you scream

Than ignore the issue
There's no in-between
Cause if we sleep in our feelings
We'll never start healing

Let's not go to bed angry
Taking back everything I said
Baby let's not do this
Baby I don't wanna go to bed angry

Push and we pull
It's the bad side of good
Trading blows, highs for lows
When we hurt just to heal
Shed a tear just to feel
So we never have to sleep through the pain

Let's not go to bed angry
Taking back everything I said
Baby let's not do this
Baby I don't wanna go to bed angry

Let's not go to bed angry
Taking back everything I said
Baby let's not do this

Angry, angry, angry
