Love, dangerous and mean
Kills like a tyrant, we are human
Trust, careless and vague
Leads us to our bitter end
One final blow

Run, run like they're right behind you Take what you want None of it matters Be what you are

Oh no, what have we done now
Why do we fall so far below
Why do we love, if we don't like the feeling
No, just give me one good reason

Love tells you you're weak
Arrogant liar, you're not human

Run, run like they really want you Do what you want What does it matter Be what you are

Oh no, what have we done now
Why do we fall so far below
Oh no, where do we go now
Why's it so hard to be alone
Why do we love if we don't like the feeling
No, just give me one good reason

Where do we go if we can't live this life We're wasting out time, we're chasing the life we love Where have we gone for so long, we've held on In the blink of an eye, you live and you die For what?

In love, I don't believe

Why do we love, if we don't like the feeling No, just give me one good reason
Love, if we don't like the feeling
No, just give me one good reason
Just give me one good reason
Just give me one good reason
