

Some People

Sexy Dancers

Some people like a dragonfly floating on air
Don't ever have to touch the ground don't have weight to bear

And those people (and those people) don't even feel they have to look down Ask those people (ask those people) where can this secret be found

Some people like a hummingbird stirring the wind
Have the sweetest every time that you can ever find

And those people (people)
every moment seem to shine From those people (people) comes a light that can never blind

Ref:
I know there is another way
even if it can not be mine Just knowing that it is for some eases my mind

If I could just have a day when I could say that I'd done fine Holding on to that single one would pass the time

Some people like a fairy tale once upon a time (once upon a time)
Live their lives in melody mornings and evenings rhyme

And those people (people)
have a rhythm like my dreams
But those people (people) are awake and know what to be
