

Pride

Shaaman

Somedays I wish to run away
Fall in the world and stray,
My life is turning, turning
But when there's nowhere else to go
Pray to the Lord, my soul,
My heart is burning, burning

You betray yourself
When you think that you're someone else

Someday I'll understand
My dreams so deep inside
And then I'm free again
To leave the pain behind
Right here in my hand
Feelings I can't hide
Someday I'm gone away
With nothing but my pride

Somedays I wish to run away
Fall in the world and stray,
My life is turning, turning

But when there's nowhere else to go
Pray to the Lord, my soul,
My heart is burning, burning

You forgive yourself
When you know that you're someone else...

Someday I'll understand
My dreams so deep inside
And then I'm free again
To leave the pain behind
Right here in my hand
Feelings I can't hide
Someday I'm gone away
With nothing but my pride
