

Slumbering Giant

Shade Empire

Forgotten in the turns of time
Existence denied
A tamed beast tied up in chains that won't last
Buried beneath the surface of this dying planet
Wandering in cosmic disharmony
Far beyond the structures of reality

There is no hope for your pitiful race
You cannot bury the old
I will arise
With joy I observe as your flame slowly suffocates

Observer under ice
A beast tied up in chains that won't last
It's time to purify the scum of this planet
Dying planet

Wandering beyond the structures of reality
