

Don't She Look Good

Shakin' Stevens

Well, now don't she look good
When her hips start to shake
You know you're in the right place
There ain't no mistake
And don't she look fine when she gives you the sign
For you to come on over and have yourself a good time

You know you can bet when it gets close to three
That you'll want to take her home
And have yourself a private party
And she can tell you with a smile
It'll just be a while
You know she's all grewed up
This ain't no young child

Now she knows what's on your mind
There ain't no use denyin'
What you wants her natural love
How can she blame you for tryin'

Well, now she knows what's on your mind
There ain't no use denyin'
What you wants her natural love
How can she blame you for tryin'

Well, when she's standin' in that line
You can spot her every time
That's for sure
