

No Apologies

Sham 69

Take a look at me Am I a member of the human race
Take a look at my face Am I here by accident

When I hear they say punk is dead I think of what I said
When I look at what I have read I think of what I said

No apologies it's just beating heart
No apologies it's just beating heart

When I demonstrated for all to see
Have I ever waited for what I want to be
