Shaman's Harvest

Oh look there you go fucking it all up again
Take me for all I am worth
Cuz being clean of you means everything to me
Rake up your words and jump in that pile of shit
Leave nothing unsaid making sure you mean every word

Holiest of priests he is dancing with mannequins
Passionately condescending all upon the other side
Taking my innocence praying it all away
Angel with horns he is Taking my innocence fucking it all away

You bring me down
Ya drag me down
Ya drag me down
You shut me down

If you poison me by turning voices
Further in my head
I won't even care if you suddenly you should
Wind up dead
Slipping further down this spiraling
Twisted wasteful home
Counting shards of glass, broken from
The mirror of our... of our home

And what if you bring me down
You tear me down you drag me down again
I'm sick of talking through you
Took a real good look at myself
Didn't like what I see
Someday I guess I will feel something
How you wanted me to
Now I'm dying for you

You bring me down
Ya drag me down
Ya drag me down
You shut me down

If you poison me by turning voices
Further in my head
I won't even care if you suddenly you should
Wind up dead
Slipping further down this spiraling
Twisted wasteful home
Counting shards of glass, broken from
The mirror of our..

Twitch

If you poison me by turning voices
Further in my head
I won't even care if you suddenly you should
Wind up dead

Counting shards of glass, broken from
The mirror of our...
...Of our home(!)
