

Shine on into an unbridled passion
Beware for all who enter here
Caught up within a single moment
Hold on until you're ready to win

Our patience has flown with starry eyes now
Standing in all you're glorious show
Fire all your guns blazin'
Brilliance in case you wanted to know

Hey you why you lookin' at me
I'll take you down the whole world will see
Hey you why you runnin' away
I'll take you down the whole world will see

Shine on without asking the question
Some things are better left unsaid
Push off the ground that is risin'
Listen to demons in your head

Cut the rope long enough for hangin'
Standin' in all your glorious show
Fire with all guns blazin'
Brilliance in case you wanted to know

Hey you why you lookin' at me
I'll take you down the whole world will see
Hey you why you runnin' away
I'll take you down the whole world will see

Hey you why you lookin' at me
I'll take you down the whole world will see
Hey you why you runnin' away
You're too far gone to just be afraid

Hey you what are you wanting from me
Again and again you got me playin' the game
Hey you why you lookin' at me
I'll take you down the whole to
I will take you down for the world to see
