

The Lorax

Shaman's Harvest

Tonight I walk a different path
A million candles burning out

I believe in a better life
I'm alone in a fire for so long

High speed [?]

Show me the exit and I'll gladly show myself out
Yet you'll want to take this picture of the womb

Tear us apart
And then bring us to life
There's nothing more important than
A will to resist
The will is alive
We've got nothing to despise
Everyone needs and needs 'till there's nothing left
Hear the lorax now

For the diamonds that I stretch
For the child man is blessed

In the name I gave this oath
I'm signing over

For the youth that still remains
For the truth that stays the same

An indifference for our life to be immortal

I found you wanting
And complacent
I'll remain
Take this will of mine
Closer and closer into the sun

And then bring us to life
There's nothing more important than
A will to resist
The will is alive
We've got nothing to despise
Everyone needs and needs 'till there's nothing left
Hear the lorax now

Bring us to life
Bring us to life
