

Girlish Body

Shane Dawson

This song goes out to my future ex boyfriend
Pack your shit

Say you only fucking me for the views
But I don't care cause the view I get when I fuck you
Your telling everyone that your a secret top
The only place you fuck me is in my ears when you talk
Your voice is almost as deep as your pores
And that says a lot cause you've got a lot of face sores
You should get popcorn tatted on your back
That way pop pop when I pop the pimples on your back

You got what I need
A boyish face with a girlish body

Your pale ass body
And your sharp ass teeth
Got Bills Skarsgård
And Pennywise quaking
You kinda look like the guy from worth it
But less rich less cute and more like you suck dick
You got your star on a channel called clever
You know that YouTube channel that people watch never aha
I don't need the psychic twins warning me of danger
I look at your forehead and I see my future

You got what I need
A boyish face with a girlish body

Aha you started from the bottom
And you still the bottom

You got what I need
A boyish face with a girlish body.
