Back to You

Shane Filan

Pacing around the room
Packed up my bag
Jacket and shoes
Taxi should be here soon
Thinking about what i'm going to do when i'm home
'Cuz i know
These cold dark dark nights
Are getting you blue, me too
Hold on, I'll come through

So when you feel like giving up
'Cuz I'm away too much
Thinking we're losing touch
I'll be coming back to you
I'll tell you every time
There's no need to cry
Just remember
I'm aways coming back to you
Back to you

Don't need to say a word
Looking at you
I know it hurts too
Don't forget how time flies
I'll be right back before you open those eyes
So blue, we know
There'll be cold dark dark nights
But whatever you do, ooh
Hold on, I'll come through

So when you feel like giving up
'Cuz I'm away too much
Thinking we're losing touch
I'll be coming back to you
I'll tell you every time
There's no need to cry
Just remember
I'm aways coming back to you

So if you're asleep tonight
Dreaming of X and Y
I'll be racing across the sky
Making my way back to you, babe
So if you're asleep tonight
Dreaming of X and Y
I'll be racing across the sky
Making my way back to you
Back to you

So when you feel like giving up
'Cuz I'm away too much
Just remember

Oooh, back to you
Yeah, I'm aways coming back to you
Oooh, yes
I'm aways coming back to you
