

Hit Me Hard

Shaun Baker

I don't really know what is going on, what is going on?
Feelings I do show
And you're showing none
And you're showing none
There was once a time
When you did treat me right-long ago
And the road to get back there
Is full of tears & hurt

You hit me hard again
And I can't understand
Tell me why do you love to hurt me
More than anything I am suffering
But I'll forgive you

I can't really say
Why I can't let go, why I can't let go
Since you've been on my way
I'm losing ground, I'm losing ground
No doubt you need me more than I need you -there's no doubt
This is what it's all about Just who's controlling who

You hit me hard again
And I can't understand
Tell me why do you love to hurt me
More than anything I am suffering
But I'll forgive you

But this time I learned a lesson
Now things are gonna change
Stop right there don't make you move
You plan I will derange

You hit me hard again
And I can't understand
Tell me why do you love to hurt me
More than anything I was suffering
But now I won't forgive you
