

Five Letter Word

Shawn Chrystopher

I never said the word bitch till my heart was broken,
Now it seem like bitch the only word that's ever spoken

They teach you how to love, but never the outcome
So when I see love, I'm tryna outrun
And ima do this Carl Lewis on this life track
I gave her everything, I want my life back
And that ring too, oh what I mean boo
I mean my life is fucking better since I seen you
Roll up out my life like R2-D2
Who knew without that makeup you were see through
And we grew apart like lines in a Broadway play
And I ain't mean to pick apart that day
When you say, that us is too much to try to discuss
And I ain't even did shit, wasn't even no mistrust
You was fucking tripping, and couldn't handle life
So then you cut me off, and bitch that wasn't right
Remember that night, your whole family put you down
And I treat you like a queen, even handed you a crown
But then you slipped off like nightgowns do at rendezvous
They say you never play your part, you lose
But I played my part like Denzel Training Day, where's my fucking Oscar?
But you the actress bitch, yeah fuckin imposter
But now I got a roster, and you ain't even starting
I got a new Benz bitch, and you ain't even parking
Oh I'm sorry bitch, did I offend you?
Great bitch, cause I meant to

I never said bitch until my heart was broken
Now it seem like bitch is the only word that's ever spoken
I never said the word bitch until my heart was broken
Now it seem like bitch the only word that's ever spoken

Live in the same city, drive the same streets
But when I ask for some time, you say you can't meet
You say you gotta work, and you got shit to do
But all that means that I don't really mean shit to you
So what's the point of me standing here on my own too
And when I need to talk too, I telephone you
Naw that aint the life, at least not for me
You got me writing don't my shit like I was Socrates
And last night I met a girl that was in the club
She told me by the way I look she knew I needed love
Gave me a hug and, it felt so good
She treated me in all the ways I wish you sorta would
I wish you sorta could, but you don't have the time
How we gon be in love, when I was next in line
I brought that girl home, I hope you understand
She made me feel like a man

I never said the word bitch until my heart was broken
Now I feel like bitch the only word that's ever spoken
I never said the word bitch until my heart was broken
Now I feel like bitch the only word that's ever spoken
