

Don't You Think I Feel It Too

Shawn Colvin

Baby you leave me in a cold state of mind
Goodbyes are never on time
The blues just keep coming, drying out your eyes
Don't you think I feel it, too?

A cold rain, a slow train
I'm all inside out
Your lights just aren't shining on me
To live it again I would believe a lie
Don't you think I feel it, too?

Oh, in a world of my own
The ground is my home and the lights
Shine only from the sky
Like you, a fool, I am lost in these blues
Don't you think I feel it, too?

Oh, in a world of my own
The ground is my home and the lights
Shine only from the sky
Like you, a fool, I am lost in these blues
Don't you think I feel it, too?

Baby you leave me in a cold state of mind
Goodbyes are never on time
The blues just keep coming, drying out your eyes
Don't you think I feel it, too?

Well the blues just keep coming, drying out your eyes
Don't you think I feel it, too?