

Lonesome, I Know You Too Well

Shawn Mullins

It's 3am and the snakes have moved in,
I'm playing to 4 drunks and me,
But the beer is cold and the memories old
And the lights are so bright I cant see

And lonesome I know you to well,
You ring in my ears, Just like a bell,
And your hollow Like a dark empty well
Lonesome, I know you to well

Now time stands still
And it spins like a wheel
Whenever I see her around,
But she doesn't know and I'll never show,
There's to many eyes in this town

And lonesome, I know you to well,
You ring in my ears Just like a bell,
And your hollow Like a dark empty well,
Lonesome, I know you
It's 3am and the snakes have moved in!
