I will... but

SHeDAISY

I won't be bored I won't be ignored Hey!

I won't be your dirty secret I won't be your cure-all pill And I won't run to fetch the water Just to tumble down the hill

I won't be your Friday paycheck I won't be the prize you flaunt And I won't be your Martha Stewart, baby Or your all-night restaurant

But I will, I will, I will be your everything If you make me feel like a woman should I will, I will, I will be the whole shebang You know I will...but

I won't be your crutch to lean on I won't wear stiletto heels I won't walk a mile in your shoes Just so I know how it feels

I won't be your obligation I won't be your Barbie doll I won't be the portrait of perfection To adorn you wall

Hey - you know, you know I will All right

I won't be your lifetime girlfriend I won't be just one of the guys I won't be your mama's favorite I refuse to be the last in line

Yeah, I will, I will, I will be your everything I will, I will be the whole shebang I will, I will be your everything I will, I will, I will, I will - yeah

You know I will You know, you know I will You know I will You know, you know I will - yeah
