

To be the first in someone's life
To set the sun and raise the moon
In someone else's eyes
To see heaven just for a day
To hold a moment in your arms
And never let it slip away
To leap off a mountaintop

And feel the rush of love
(Feel the rush of love)
To taste that holy kiss
(Taste that holy kiss)
I could never get enough of this
(Never get, never get enough of this)
This rush, this rush

To touch the earth before you fall
To know that here and now with you
Remains forever after all
To hear the beauty in dissonance
To finally know that all our questions
Make perfect sense
To break the surface and breathe the air

And feel the rush of love
(Feel the rush of love)
To taste that holy kiss
(Taste that holy kiss)
I could never get enough of this
(Never get, never get enough of this)
This rush, this rush

This rush
(To be the first in someone's life)
Oh, this rush
(To set the sun in someone's eyes)
I could never get enough of
(To hold forever for a day)
Oh, this rush
(And never let it slip away)
This rush

To be the first
In someone's life
To set the sun and raise the moon
In someone else's eyes
