

Following You

Shelby Lynne

Following you as the light falls on the water in the morning
Following you watch the day bring longer shadows garden's growi ng
I'm just a kid
A baby child
Waiting on direction
From your voices
You're just a King
Only a King
But you made all your choices - ummmmm
Following you even though you don't know where you are going
Following you in your footsteps on the leaves
Even thoughing
I'll pretend
Just pretend
To let you think I don't know nothing
Like I'm supposed to
I prop you up
I stand you up
So I can keep you in the knowing
Your Halo's showing
Following you
Following you
Following You
