

Shed Some Light

Shinedown

I'm falling apart again
And I can't find a way to make amends
And I'm looking in both directions
But it's make believe, it's all pretend

So shed some light on me
And hold me up in disbelief
And shed some light on me
And tell me something that I'll believe in

It's innocence within the maze
But I have chosen the wrong way
I'm still getting over who I was
There's no sense of trust, there's no definition of love

So shed some light on me
And hold me up in disbelief
And shed some light on me
And tell me something that I'll believe in

I know now, it's not who you are, it's who you know
And I see clearly now, which way to go
I remember the way I fell from above
And I recall the way I was

So shed some light on me
And hold me up in disbelief
And shed some light on me
And tell me something that I'll believe in

Shed some light on me
And hold me up in disbelief
And shed some light on me
And tell me something that I'll believe

And tell me something that I'll (Tell me something that I'll believe)
Believe
(Tell me something that I'll believe)
Something I'll believe
