

It's been a while, dream girl, did you wait for me?
The heat in my body rises like a fire
When everyone sees me, they can't leave - it's natural

Nightmare (My side is for you)
The nights without me (I'll hitchhike you, who was lost)
Danger to you, who forgot about my existence
Like dynamite, blast it all up

Let's Go!

You didn't even imagine about this spoiler
It's too early to be surprised
It'll be shocking just like always (with things you couldn't even predict)
Are you ready to clap? For SHINee?

As if my body will break down, as if I'll collapse
I'm the most beautiful when I'm standing on stage
Excuse me miss, I sang this song for you from the start

My side is for you, who looks stony
Your face, why so serious? (I'll hitchhike you, who was lost)
Run away if you don't wanna fall for me
Sell your evil soul

Let's Go!

A passive and stiff music box?
It's not me - I grasp the world and move it
I will show you my world

I'll go to you so that you won't notice it
Carefully, secretly (once more, one more time)
The title to decorate the first chapter (to decorate the first chapter)
I whispered it in your ear from SHINee
