

Declaration of a Cheat

Shining Fury

(music by Shining Fury)

Hi stranger white,
tell me now what are you doin' here, show me why our sky now is fallin' down

Now our words turn over the hell
'cause your intentions are underhands

You're like a whore
'cause your smile are for all the people but your cheat will make fat only your end

Now our words turn over the hell
'cause your intentions are underhands

I see the haze in your eyes in this harsh winter time in your mind i have seen my home

Now our words turn over the hell
'cause your intentions are underhands
