

Carrie

Shiny Toy Guns

We were young once, full of violence.
Now you're silenced, and I'm breathing the cold,
You forgot me, almost lost me.
Every night was hell like battling war

Hesitation, frustration
What's the problem?
Is this what you want?

You're hearing voices, getting restless
A pair of wings is all you're wishing for
You know, you know...

Carrie!
Where did you go?
Carrie!
Where did you go?
Carrie,
What's wrong?
Carrie...

Do you remember when you saw me
Wandering the dark streets?
You left me alone.
It wasn't like you, nothing like you
To paralyze our dreams of changing the world
Taken over by a cobra
Hooded warrior, is deaf to the sounds.
Shooting bright lights,
Crimson walkways
Now we say "New York's our city of love"
Of love, of love, of love

Carrie
Where did you go?
Carrie
Where did you go?
Carrie
What's wrong?
Tell me what's wrong

I still, still feel the love we felt

Where did you go?
Carrie
Where did you go?
Carrie
Where did you go?
Carrie
What's wrong?
Tell me what's wrong
Tell me what's wrong
