Love... feel love

Every question
Every answer too
Ever constant
Ever changing few
It's all memory in the sun
Or it's all in the darkness

Maybe it's all around to see
If we try
And maybe it's been inside of me
All this time
Love love love
Love love love
Love love love

Love love love Love love love Love love love Ooo-oooh

Crazy with it
Crazier without Never certain
Never full of doubt
Now you feel it
Now you don't
Do you know what you're feeling?

Where did it come from and where Does it go?
If it were right in front of me Would i know?
Love love love
Love love love
Love love love

Love love love Love love love
