

I'm nothing without you

Shirley Bassey

Maybe in a year
I'll be a thousand miles from here
Maybe then
I'll be someone

For maybe I will find
A magic in this poems rhyme
Turning me into someone

But time may come and time may go
But time has only come to show
This thing I've just begun to know
Without you I'm nothing!

And when people say I'm on my way
I found my place
I'm here to stay
Then more and more I know each day

Without You I'm nothing!
I'm nothing...

Without you!
I'm nothing!

Without you, I'm nothing at all

Without you...
