

Isn't It a Shame

Shirley Bassey

How is it that two people
Who laughed together and loved together
Sometimes end up far apart

And how is it that two people
Who cry together, wanna die together
Sometimes end up with a broken heart

Isn't it a shame my friend?
Sometimes such a love must end
Isn't it a shame?
You have to laugh before you cry

And how is it that two people
Who cling together, and dream together
Sometimes end up all alone

And how is it that two people
Who plan together, make a life together
Sometimes end up all alone

Isn't it a shame my friend?
Sometimes such a love must end
Isn't it a shame?
you have to laugh before you cry
Isn't it a shame my friend?
Sometimes such a love must end
Isn't it a shame?
you have to laugh before you cry

Isn't it a shame my friend
Sometimes such a love must end
Isn't it a shame?
you have to laugh before you cry
Isn't it a shame?
You have to laugh before you cry
