

Leave A Little Room

Shirley Bassey

If your heart is breaking 'cause your dream's not coming true
Leave a little room to start again
If your faith is shakin', though it seems you thought it through
Leave a little room for it to mend
Leave a little room to find a friend
Leave a little room to start again

First you think you're alone
And the world's made of stone
And the game isn't fair
'Til you know someone cares

If your love is leavin' and you thought that it was true
Leave a little room to think again
If your heart is grievin' and you don't know what to do
Leave a little room for it to mend
Leave a little room to find a friend
Leave a little room to start again

And be glad you're alive
You've got nothing to hide
And the feeling is free
And the feeling is me

If your heart is breaking 'cause your dream's not coming true
Leave a little room to start again
If your love is leavin' and you thought that it was true
Leave a little room to find it
Put a little faith behind it
Leave a little room and start again

Leave a little room to find it
Put a little faith behind it
Leave a little room to start again
Leave a little room to find it
Put a little faith behind it
Leave a little room and start again
Leave a little room to find it
Put a little faith behind it
Leave a little room and start again
Leave a little room to find it
Put a little faith behind it...
