

Got here too late
Nothing left for you
Unless you want to wait
Nothing else to do

Back door
Cracked floor
Cracked reactor
Headaches from the generator

We've never heard of the ministry of sound and We've never heard of the underground and
There's not enough polis to close it down
Not enough polis in this whole town

Left over soviet Infrastructure
Fractured nuclear Fission rupture
Furthest outpost
of bourgeois hardcore
Cossack dancing
on a concrete dancefloor

We've never heard of the ministry of sound and
We've never heard of the underground and
There's not enough polis to close it down
Not enough polis in this whole town

denaturat
purple slices
toilet seats
with hepatitis

Anarchy
In the USSR
Disused party
In a gabba reactor
