Ghetto Lullabye

Shontelle

Hush little shorty, don't you cry
I'll sing you a ghetto lullaby
When things get rough let me dry your eyes
Give you the strength, hold your head up high

When this cold world never do you right I'll hold you down through the darkest nights So rest your head, let me ease your mind I'll sing you a ghetto lullaby

Where shall I begin to teach you What could take a lifetime to learn? Nuff lies will be told, with each day The truth will unfold

Picture if you can, a mountain so high That you can't see the top An ocean so wide You can see where it meets the sky

Well, that's how far you're gonna have to go Hold on tight shorty, don't let go Those rains will fall and those winds will blow Out in these streets can be so cold

Hush little shorty, don't you cry
I'll sing you a ghetto lullaby
When things get rough let me dry your eyes
Give you the strength, hold your head up high

When this cold world never do you right I'll hold you down through the darkest nights So rest your head, let me ease your mind I'll sing you a ghetto lullaby

I'm looking at you, a picture of innocence framed within trust Each river you cross filled with the unknown not so treacherous All envy and greed will rip you apart and leave you to bleed And incessantly cut you down with no trace of mercy

Nuff back stabbers and informers Hate and disease, so let me warn ya Sharks in the ocean will raise their teeth Let's all run fast when you see

Hush little shorty, don't you cry
I'll sing you a ghetto lullaby
When things get rough let me dry your eyes
Give you the strength, hold your head up high

When this cold world never do you right I'll hold you down through the darkest nights So rest your head, let me ease your mind I'll sing you a ghetto lullaby

Ooh, dry your eyes, don't you cry, not tonight If you just try you will find your sunrise

Hush little shorty, don't you cry
I'll sing you a ghetto lullaby
When things get rough let me dry your eyes
Give you the strength, hold your head up high

When this cold world never do you right
I'll hold you down through the darkest nights
So rest your head, let me ease your mind
I'll sing you a ghetto lullaby
