

Golden Boy

Short Stack

Oh la da da
I got a feeling I should blow, HEY,
My brains through the ceiling
So I can get you outta my mind

I miss the anticipation
You got scars, HEY,
In all the right places
But I need to get you off, of my mind

But you know
I'm not somebody worth waiting for
They all think of us together
Brace yourself for have you ever
Cause I sing this song forever

Everybody wants to leave with you
But I'm sorry I don't want to
I'm so sick of all your shit
So baby I do not miss you one bit

Everybody wants to leave with you
But I'm sorry I don't want to
I'm so sick of all your shit
So baby I do not miss you one bit

I miss the infatuation
I see stars, HEY,
In your constellation
Says I need to get you off, of my mind

Don't you know
I'm not somebody worth fighting for
They all think of us together
Brace yourself for have you ever
Cos I sing this song forever

Everybody wants to leave with you
But I'm sorry I don't want to
I'm so sick of all your shit
So baby I do not miss you one bit

Everybody wants to leave with you
But I'm sorry I don't want to
I'm so sick of all your shit
So baby I do not miss you one bit

Ok, I know we should do it golden boy

Everybody wants to leave with you
(Everybody wants to leave with you)
I said everybody wants to leave with you
(Everybody wants to leave with you)

Everybody wants to leave with you
But I'm sorry I don't want to
I'm so sick of all your shit

So baby I do not miss you one bit

Everybody wants to leave with you
But I'm sorry I don't want to
I'm so sick of all your shit
So baby I do not miss you one bit

Do not miss you one bit
Do not miss you one bit
