

Crying Game

Shout Out Louds

Hey don't turn on the light
Let my eyes adjust I'm fine
But there's a possibility

I'm too blind to see

Let me fall to the floor
And float slowly out the door
Where there's a possibility
You won't see me

Play the crying game
Stay awake
Feels like forever until your lunch break
I am here now but that's as close as I get
I'm in your hair now but that's as close as I get

Turning left or right
Let the wind guide me back
There's an energy that's still inside of me
Oh these hopeless times
Oh these everlasting nights
They're all broken glass and electricity

Play the crying game
Stay awake
Feels like forever until your lunch break
I am here now but that's as close as I get
I'm in your hair now but that's as close as I get

Crying game
Stay awake
Feels like forever until your lunch break
I am here now but that's as close as I get
I'm in your hair now but that's as close as I get

Stay awake
Feels like forever until your lunch break
I am here now but that's as close as I get
I'm in your hair now but that's as close as I get
