

Throw Some Light

Shout Out Louds

Steppin' off the plane and going straight to my hotel
The sun is up but the city's still asleep
Taking a step out into nothing

Thinking about you
Don't recognize the man in the mirror
Faking what is true

Somebody throw some light
Somebody throw some light on me
Somebody throw some light
Somebody throw some light on me

Picked up laundry and had a drink
Oh, I miss my old friends
This is the loneliest year of my career
All this peddling and all this talk of tryna get me out of here
This is my stop though I know its not ideal

Taking a step out into nothing
Thinking about you
Don't recognize the man in the mirror
Fakin' what is true

Somebody throw some light
Somebody throw some light on me
Somebody throw some light
Somebody throw some light on me

Steppin' off the plane and going straight
To your apartment (straight to your apartment)
The sun is up but you are still asleep (you are still asleep)
Taking a step out into nothing
Thinking about you
Don't recognize the man in the mirror
Fakin' what is true

Somebody throw some light
Somebody throw some light on me
Somebody throw some light
Somebody throw some light on me
Somebody throw some light, light on me
Somebody throw some light, light on me
