

Gypsy Rose-Lee

Showaddywaddy

Gaze in your crystal ball, tell me what you see
Be straight and tell it all, is the hope for me
Now lady read my palm, and my old tea cup
I'm going to chance my arm
On things looking, looking good yeah

Gypsy Rose Lee can you tell me
Everything will be alright
Gypsy Rose Lee can you tell me
Is the future bright

I'm tired of being dumb, chance my shattered heart
Changes will go and come, of that there ain't no doubt
So don't you sympathize, let me know my fate
I want the truth no lies
For it's getting, getting late now

Gypsy Rose Lee can you tell me
Everything will be alright
Gypsy Rose Lee can you tell me
Is the future bright

All that I've waited to hear, could mean such a lot to me
Maybe a miracle's here, I'll just have to wait and see

Gypsy Rose Lee can you tell me
Everything will be alright
Gypsy Rose Lee can you tell me
Is the future bright, bri-igh-igh-ight

Gypsy Rose Lee can you tell me
Everything will be alright
Gypsy Rose Lee can you tell me
Is the future bright
