

You Will Lose Your Love Tomorrow

Showaddywaddy

Hide away 'cause I'm in trouble, what to do
Alone again to face the music, I'll get through
If you won't comfort me in times of sorrow
You will lose your love tomorrow

Every time I need your love, you look away
Every time it seems to happen everyday
You should be mine for keeps and not to borrow
You will lose your love tomorrow

If you go it won't be right, for you to walk the streets at night
You'd better stop and give your love to me

Hide away 'cause I'm in trouble, what to do
Alone again to face the music, I'll get through
If you won't comfort me in times of sorrow
You will lose your love tomorrow...
