

Don't Sweat It

Sidewalk Prophets

Hey you, you used to feel light as a feather
Now, now every plate your spinning's 'bout to drop
Hey you, you get so worried 'bout the weather
Yeah the pressure in your head's about to pop

Don't you worry 'bout tomorrow
Let tomorrow worry 'bout itself
Take the trouble that you've borrowed
Throw it right back on the shelf

Don't sweat it
I know you won't regret it
Just go on forget it
Don't let it run away with your life
Don't sweat it
He meant it when He said it
He's always in control
Let it go
Leave your worries behind
Don't sweat it
Don't sweat it

Hey you, I know you're scared to take a step
You think that floor beneath your feet is going to give
Hey you, I think it's time to take a swing
'Cause if you never swing, you'll never get a hit

Don't you worry 'bout tomorrow
Let tomorrow worry 'bout itself
Take trouble that you've borrowed
Throw it right back on the shelf

Don't sweat it
I know you won't regret it
Just go on forget it
Don't let it run away with your life
Don't sweat it
He meant it when He said it
He's always in control
Let it go
Leave your worries behind
Don't sweat it
Don't sweat it

When your worry gets high
Tell your worry get low
It's gonna be alright
You just gotta let it go

Don't worry 'bout worry
It gets in the way
Headache, heartbreak, bad luck, bad day
All the stressin' in your head
And the baggage that you bring
They just keep you down
They don't help a thing
And no matter what you got

You got a reason to sing
So throw your hands up
Give it to the King

Don't sweat it

Don't sweat it
I know you won't regret it
Just go on forget it
Don't sweat it
He meant it when He said it
Let it go
Don't sweat it
Don't sweat it
